

Cox May Be Forced To Witness Stand In "Slush" Probe

Investigation Begins in Chicago Today and Republicans Say He Will Have to Appear in "Self-Defense."

REPUBLICANS PLAN FOR COUNTER CHARGES

They Allege Democrats Are Trying to Levy Tax on Office-Holders for Campaign Purposes. Hearings Expected to Prove Sensational.

BY JAMES L. KILGALLAN.
United News Staff Correspondent.
Chicago, August 29.—Governor James M. Cox will have to appear before the senate committee's campaign expenditures investigation, which begins Monday, in "self-defense," if for no other reasons, republican leaders declared Sunday night. They contended they will prove him a "sensationalist."

"By the time Will Hays and I are through testifying, Cox will be glad to come," said Fred W. Upham, treasurer of the republican national committee.

Will Hays, national chairman, declared Governor Cox will have to prove the charge he made in New York Saturday that contributors to the republican fund were being made "by the purpose of using the bayonet to settle industrial difficulties."

"He cannot prove it," Hays added, "for the simple reason his charge is absolutely false."

In addition it was stated that the republicans will, during the sessions, inaugurate an aggressive onslaught against the democratic campaign fund as Governor Cox has against the G. O. P. money bag. They will charge that the democratic forces are assessing federal employees 3 per cent of their salary, which, according to the G. O. P. appropriation committee, does not net the democrats $27,000,000, "by the Cox method of computation."

"We will fight him with fire," said Mr. Hays. "We will not only make public everything connected with the campaign, but we will make the democrats do the same. We warned them at the start that we would not take their aspersions lying down, and we are going to back up that statement."

Names to Be Published.

It was announced by Mr. Hays that "the name of every one of the thousands of men and women contributing every single dollar will be given to the committee."

"While republican headquarters hummed with a 'before the battle' atmosphere, and leaders hurried from one conference to another, democratic headquarters were tranquil and practically deserted. Not one of the subpoenaed democrats had arrived. All of them, it was said, will appear to answer the committee's call Monday with evidence that will prove that Governor Cox has been throwing stones from a 'class house.'"

With the republicans gathering every bit of available data to prove that Governor Cox's charge that the republican fund was raised to "buy the presidency" is false and the democrats bringing all their books and documents to prove that the administration is not using its influence to force federal employees to contribute to its fund, sensational developments were predicted by both sides before the probe is concluded.

In addition, the committee will hear officials of the congressional and senatorial committees of both parties as to the part they are playing in providing funds for elections in all parts of the country. Altogether, all forces agree, the investigation gives promise of being the most exhaustive probe into the methods of electing national executives ever started in this country.

Registration.

The committee will have a republican complexion when the sessions are started at 10 o'clock Monday. Senator Edge, of New Jersey, republican member, who has not taken part in the sessions since the Washington late Sunday. Senator Edge declared that he had just returned from Europe and was not in touch with the situation and would not be until he had had time to confer with his colleagues. Of the five members of the committee, three are republicans.

All of the evidence that Governor Cox intends to present to the committee is expected to be put in its hands by Senator James Reed, of Missouri, democratic member. It is understood that Governor Cox has forwarded this information to Senator Reed.

It was declared that the budget to be submitted to the committee will set forth that $3,075,000 was decided upon as the necessary amount needed for the Harding campaign. On this, it will be stated, slightly more than $1,000,000 was been raised.

It is expected that the republicans will be asked to state their case first and that Chairman Hays will be the first witness. Chairman George White, of the democratic national committee, and Wilbur W. Marsh, treasurer, are expected to arrive in Chicago in time for the first session Monday.

DRIFT CONTINUES FROM THE SMITH RANKS TO DORSEY

Senator Losing Support of Thousands of Men Who Have Been Ardent Backers in Past.

BIG CHANGE REPORTED IN JEFF DAVIS COUNTY

All Reports at Dorsey Headquarters Show That Watson Is Man Governor Must Defeat.

The Ex-Hoke Smith club made lusty growth last week. Many doors at Dorsey headquarters in the Kimball house enrolled and took various degrees from first to fifth—there being a degree for each time a voter has cast his ballot for the senator.

Similar clubs were started at many places throughout the state. It was estimated on Saturday that there are fully 20,000 men in Georgia who have admitted within the week that they have changed from Mr. Smith and are going to vote for Governor Dorsey for the United States senate.

In Jeff Davis county, for example, the changes there are reported to be more than 200. Among these are such prominent men as Judge Gordon Knox, of the city court at Hazlehurst; Otto Middleton, editor of the Hazlehurst News; W. B. Hoke, insurance agent; T. H. Westover, president of the Bank of Hazlehurst; G. W. Best and L. P. Granger, merchants; C. W. Chapman, J. M. Hinson, G. T. Adams and R. B. G. Underwood, farmers.

Drift to Dorsey Continues.

In county after county the drift continues from the senator to the governor. If it keeps up for another week at the rate it has been going for the past ten days there will certainly be 50,000 former Hoke Smith votes cast for Governor Dorsey September 7.

Changes are practically all to Dorsey. This is because he represents true democracy and is thoroughly in harmony with the national platform and with Governor Cox.

It is reported from Jeff Davis county that Senator Smith will not get 10 per cent of the votes which will be cast there. His obstructive course in the senate and his alliance with Watson in the May convention, it is stated, have alienated thousands and thousands of his former supporters. The convention refusal to endorse the administration was the final act which exhausted the patience of hosts of former Smith men.

Senator Ragsdale took a poll Saturday on a Saturday train coming from Cedartown to Atlanta with the following result:

Dorsey 14
Watson 1

Undecided 6

That would be an even break for Dorsey if all the doubtful ones went against him. Of course, the chances are that he will get some of them.

Great Interest Shown.

Old timers say they have never seen so much interest shown around the Kimball house in a political campaign as is evident this year. Perhaps one reason is that so many candidates have their headquarters at this hotel.

Every day the famous lobby is thronged with excited groups discussing their favorite candidates. There is much talk of betting, but very little real money is put up. Every day some one reports that there is Smith money in the lobby and the Dorsey backers rush down with rolls to cover it, but they seldom find anybody who will actually bet.

Watson His Opponent.

Georgia Newspaper Editors Declare Contest for Senate Between Dorsey and Watson

Reports to Constitution From Every Section of the State From Leading Publications Show Smith a Poor Third and Prove Necessity of Loyal Democrats Combining Upon Governor.

It is the consensus of the newspaper editors of Georgia, regardless of political alignments, that the race for the United States senate is between Dorsey and Watson, with Smith a poor third; and that the voters of Georgia must combine upon Dorsey if they would arrest the threat of "Watsonism" that is unquestionably menacing.

For several days The Atlanta Journal has been frantically endeavoring to create the impression in Georgia, particularly where actual facts were not accessible, that the race for the United States senate is between Hoke Smith and Tom Watson, thereby making it "necessary," according to The Journal, "to combine on Smith to defeat Watson." This propaganda has been prosecuted in a studied effort, first to mislead the voters into a support of Smith to defeat Watsonism in Georgia—although audaciously flung into the faces of people who are familiar with the Watson-Smith coalition, to discredit the democratic party, on the 18th of May—and second, to direct popular attention from the record of Senator Smith, not alone in his unholy alliance with Watson, but also in his consorting with the republicans to defeat the peace treaty, eating salt out of the hands of Henry Cabot Lodge, and in obstructing war legislation in a war-time congress.

Smith Running Poor Third.

Voters in Georgia who are in touch with the actual facts in the present campaign, of course, understand and properly discount The Journal's motives. They know that Hoke Smith is running a poorer third today than he did in the April primary when he trailed the ticket, although it will be recalled that even then The Journal had its usual daily spasms about "Smith sweeping the state" up to and including the very day of the primary.

But there are people, and perhaps thousands of them, who are not in touch, by reason of their remoteness from populous centers, or environments or other conditions, with the actual facts as they exist all over Georgia, and these people are entitled to know the actual truth, and they shall know it so far as this paper is concerned.

On the 25th day of August The Constitution sent a number of editors in Georgia, of both daily and weekly papers, and without regard to their political affiliations, a letter containing the following request for a fair, impartial, unbiased survey of the situation in their sections and districts:

Impartial Survey Asked.

"In the desire to give the democratic voters of the state an expression from those who in the very nature of things are best posted as to which of the candidates opposing Watson is really the strongest, The Constitution, in sending this letter to editors of prominent and conservative weekly and daily newspapers representing every one of the twelve congressional districts of Georgia, asking that they send us by Friday noon, August 27, a one-hundred-word message, giving their opinion as to the relative strength of Governor Dorsey and Senator Smith in their respective counties and sections.

"The majority of the appeals sent to parliament, the king and queen, the prime minister and all officials, humane arguments vie with warnings that MacSwiney's death means civil war in the matter of predominance in the matter of predominance. It is interesting to note that all sides, even the bitterest Sinn Fein enemies, are represented in the appeals for the lord mayor's release. A majority of the London newspapers, representing many different political faiths, are urging Lloyd George to exercise clemency.

"Many believe that the prime minister has failed to gauge the tide of protest against his unending attitude because, at Lucerne, he was far away from the scene. There are those who believe that if the extent of this appeal is understood by him, he will heed it.

"Whichever way the matter is settled, however, the government cannot but have been weakened. If the king intervenes, as it is hoped he may, naturally the prestige of Lloyd George's regime will be tremendously damaged. If the premier himself gives the government, which will have backed down on what it considers a vital issue. On the other hand, if MacSwiney dies, Ireland will assuredly run red.

"Life Hanging by Thread.

The lord mayor's life is hanging by a thread on Sunday. His wife spent two hours at his bedside. The prisoner lay with his eyes closed a greater part of the time, and was too weak to converse except for some very short intervals. Owing to the infection of his lungs, it is difficult to estimate how many more days he will be able to live.

A report that the lord mayor was to be kept alive by artificial feeding brought forth a protest from Miss MacSwiney, the prisoner's sister, who declared:

"His wife is not allowed to die or be released."

A physician's statement, however, said that MacSwiney was receiving nothing but medical attention. The patient is unable to raise his head from the bed. He drinks water occasionally, but never smokes.

Great crowds are waiting with intense interest in the streets of Dublin to see the prisoner issued his "last message" to the world.

"Although I die," he said, "I cannot think that the prayers offered for me and my principles will be unavailing."

Thousands participated Sunday afternoon in a gigantic demonstration on MacSwiney's behalf at Clapham common.

Great crowds of former service men took part in a mass meeting at Trafalgar square Sunday afternoon which was tinged with feeling not only in regard to the MacSwiney case, but also to the peace treaty.

BROOKLYN IS TIED BY TRANSIT STRIKE; 8,000 QUIT WORK

Traffic on All the Subway, Elevated and Surface Lines Is Practically Paralyzed.

HARVEST BEING REAPED BY THE MOTOR BUSES

Bus Fare Jumped From 25 Cents to One and Three Dollars—Strikers Want More Pay and a Closed Shop.

New York, August 29.—Brooklyn awoke this morning to find its transportation facilities completely tied up by an unexpected strike of approximately 8,000 employees of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit system.

The strike has been pending several days and at a meeting late last night the car men voted to defer action on the strike for one week. Three hours later another meeting was held and the men voted to go on strike at 5 o'clock this morning.

Tonight all lines virtually were paralyzed. No surface cars were running and only a meager number of trains were crawling over the elevated and subway lines. These were under police protection and a close guard was maintained.

Coney Island had a crowd of about 100,000 persons, despite the difficulty they had in getting there. They went in motor buses, moving vans, wagons and vehicles of every description. The buses charged a 25 to 30-cent fare to Coney Island, but took advantage of the situation and charged from a dollar to three dollars for the return trip.

Temporary municipal bus routes in all sections and steamboat service to Coney Island were being put in operation by the city tonight.

The strikers are members of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees of America. Recently they presented demands to Lindley M. Garrison, receiver of the B. R. T., asking for a wage increase of 25 per cent and an eight-hour day and a closed shop.

Receiver Garrison refused to grant the demands and referred the men to Federal Judge Julius M. Mayer, legal custodian of the company. Judge Mayer sustained Receiver Garrison's refusal and would not confer with the strikers, claiming that their demands were radical and excessive. The amalgamated committee and the B. R. T. officers met and the strike today resulted.

Belfast Is Bloody; Battles Are Raging Between Factions

LABOR FINDS COX MORE FRIENDLY THAN HARDING

Non-Partisan Committee of American Federation Reports on Records of the Candidates.

COX UNDERSTANDS NEEDS OF WORKERS

Better Than Harding, According to the Report. Cox's Record as Governor of Ohio Is Cited.

Washington, August 29.—(By the Associated Press.)—Organized labor's non-partisan political campaign committee, comparing the public records of the republican and democratic presidential nominees, declared in a report made public today that Governor Cox had "shown himself possessed of a fuller understanding of the needs of the working people."

The report, signed by Samuel Gompers, president; Matthew Woll, vice president; and Frank Morrison, secretary of the American Federation of Labor, is the first ever made on presidential candidates by a federation committee.

Taking up the senatorial record of Senator Harding, the committee declared that on 18 measures dealing with labor his score stood: Favorable 7, unfavorable 10, paired unfavorably 1.

The republican nominee's vote on labor issues during his term in the state senate of Ohio, as reported by the committee, stood: Favorable 6, unfavorable 6. In this connection the report said:

"Senator Harding's record in Washington affords a better opportunity for analysis of his legislative views than does his record in the Ohio senate by reason of the fact that his term of service extended for a longer period of time during which he was called upon to consider a wider variety of measures."

Reviewing Governor Cox's record the report said that while Governor of Ohio he had "acted upon 53 measures of interest to labor with out acting on a single one adversely to labor." As a member of the 62d congress the governor was recorded as voting "favorable" to labor on two measures, the only ones listed.

After reviewing and citing quotations from the report, the committee said: "The committee on labor issues in its speeches of acceptance the committee summarized its findings in this language:

"There can be but one conclusion based upon a careful and impartial survey of the actions and declarations of the candidates. Governor

Eleven Men Killed and About Forty Wounded in Fighting That Lasted Through Saturday Night

BRITISH ARMORED CARS FIRED ON THE CROWDS

And the Rattle of Machine Guns Was Continuous—Vast Amount of Property Was Destroyed by Incendiarism.

Belfast, August 29.—Eleven men dead is the toll of Saturday night's fighting in Belfast. In addition to the six men killed during the height of the battle, five of the wounded died today. About 40 persons were wounded and some of them will die.

A feature of the rioting was the extent of the destruction of property by incendiarism. The fire brigade had an especially hard time during the night in fighting the flames. Their work was rendered hideous by the constant rattle of machine guns. The Sinn Feiners were in strong force and appeared to be well equipped with arms and ammunition.

The greatest bitterness was displayed during the fighting. There was a great amount of wrecking of houses and the burning of furniture, both indoors and on the street. The yells of the mob, the shrieks of women and children and the groans of the injured were audible throughout the fighting.

When the rioting was at its worst, women could be seen clad in their night attire, rushing from their homes, attempting to lead their families from the danger zone. The excitement was intense until 10 o'clock Saturday morning. Isolated firing was heard throughout the forenoon and the people were apprehensive lest there should be a renewal of the disorder at nightfall.

Thirteen independent labor party hall, the last attempt resulted in serious damage to the building.

The police tonight charged crowds in the Crumlin road with their batons, but order was not restored until the troops arrived from the unionist district and from which side streets radiate to the falls, became the storm center.

Later in the evening the battle shifted to the northern part of the city, by way of Townsend street, a long thoroughfare extending from the falls to the lodge roads. The latter and troops arrived from Crumlin and Old Park roads were centers of the fiercest fighting of the whole week, especially the "marrowbone," the nickname of this nationalist enclave at the top of Old Park road.

Sinn Feiners in this neighborhood made an organized descent on unionists in Crumlin road, smashing windows and firing into houses. Failure by the police to hold them back led to the summoning of military aid. For several hours armed cars were sent to the scene with squads of police and soldiers and volleys were poured into the crowd. After two hours of stiff fighting the Sinn Feiners were driven back into their own quarters, but sniping into the unionist quarters continued far into Sunday morning.

British Barracks Raided.

In broad daylight today, Sinn Feiners entered Bally castle, County Antrim, barracks, and seized all the arms and ammunition. A well-known republican called at the barracks and engaged the garrison sergeant and three constables in conversation, when a motor dashed up and five men, revolvers in hand, leaping out, ran past the party into the barracks. The police were too surprised to offer resistance, and

Pope Benedict Induced to Pose For the Movies

For First Time in History a Pontiff Allows Himself to Be Snapped—Vatican Officials Amazed.

Rome, August 29.—(By the Associated Press.)—For the first time in history a pope has posed for the motion picture camera. Not only was permission granted for the filming of scenes in the Lourdes chapel grounds, but Pope Benedict today took a leading part, posing first with various groups and then for "close ups," and expressing much amusement at the persistence of the American photographers who went within four feet of the pontiff and snapped him smiling into the camera.

This occurred after the pope had celebrated mass for the visiting American Knights of Columbus in the open vatican gardens and had given holy communion personally to the knights.

The pope was amazed that the pope appeared in these scenes for about twenty minutes and which proved the most complete pictures ever taken of vatican ceremonies.

The pope seized Supreme Knight Fishery by both hands, blessing the knights and America. He welcomed the visitors in a short address which was translated by Archbishop Cerretti, formerly of the papal delegation at Washington. The pope drank a cup of coffee with the knights after celebrating mass, and after he had posed for the pictures drove through the gardens flanked by knights to the vatican.

When the vatican officials objected to the pope being photographed he said: "Let the Americans have what they want."

HE WAS LYNCHED AFTER DICTATING LETTER TO MOTHER

Tulsa, Okla., August 29.—A mob estimated at 2,000 persons last night participated in the lynching of Tom M. Owens, white, accused of the shooting several days ago of Homer Nida, a taxicab driver, who died at a hospital early Friday morning.

Owens contended to the end he was innocent, blaming a woman for the crime. A final message he was permitted to dictate, which he asked a morning newspaper to forward to his mother, was addressed to "Mrs. C. O. Bolton, 402 Burwell, Knoxville, Tenn."

The message read:

"Your son Tom lynched tonight by mob, as alleged murderer of Homer Nida. He asked that you arrange for burial."

A rigid investigation of the lynching of Toy Bolton, alias T. M. Owens, will be made at once, according to Thomas L. Munroe, county attorney.

Sheriff James Woolley, whom the leaders disarmed before storming the county jail for Bolton, removed Raymond Sharp and Marie Harmon, who have admitted their connection with the shooting, to Muskogee early today, fearing the mob might attempt to lynch them here.

Mrs. C. O. Bolton, Knoxville, Tenn., mother of the confessed slayer, wired today that her daughter, Bolton's flat denial of his former confession of the murder, given once when he was removed from his cell, and reiterated in his last spoken words, had been the talk of the city. Hundreds of citizens have visited the morgue where the body is kept.

WOMEN GARBED IN SHORT SKIRTS BARRED CHURCH

Madrid, August 28.—No woman will be permitted to enter church unless dressed "in christian modesty," says a notice circulated through the diocese of Gaudix, by authority of Bishop Hernandez Mulas today.

Any woman wearing a dress which exposes her chest and arms or who has a short skirt or transparent stockings will be refused admission and also communion, while the clergy must refuse admission to any woman so attired, the notice declares. Women disobeying these orders of the bishop are forbidden to become members of church societies.

THE ISSUE ANALYZED.

It is apparent from every indication that the democrats of Georgia are determined that they shall not be represented in the United States senate by a man who is not in accord with the national party organization. A politician's mental attitude is to be determined by the record of what he has done, rather than by what he says when on the spit of public appraisal and seeking votes!

It is impossible for any conscientious and reasonable democrat to vote for any candidate who does not represent in the fullest degree the aims and purpose of the party as those aims and purposes are defined and laid down by the national convention, and given expression through the national platform.

The paramount issue before the people of this country today, according to the democratic national platform—and the "supreme issue" in the language of the party's presidential nominee—is the league of nations.

The national convention committed the party to a position unalterably favoring ratification of the league covenant with reasonable reservations, and firmly and unapologetically opposed to reservations which destroy the force and effectiveness of the document.

That, too, is the position of President Wilson, and of the man nominated by the party to succeed President Wilson.

It would be idle for the democratic party to solicit the votes of the country on the theory that it is in favor of a real league of nations if a democratic state, Georgia, for example, sends to the senate a man who is against a real league of nations!

Tom Watson is notoriously and pronouncedly against the league in any form whatsoever.

Hoke Smith's record proves him to be in favor of a league that would be lifeless—despite his eleven-hour assertions of harmony with the democratic platform.

The democratic party has joined issue with the republican party over the league.

Senator Smith could not have joined issue with the republican party on this subject because his position and the republican party's position on the league of nations are identical—as his record and the republican platform prove. He repeatedly declared, in fact, that he actually wrote the Lodge reservation, but he is trying now to wiggle out of that.

Regardless of personal preferences, every democrat of Georgia must admit, first, that the democratic party, nationally, is engaged in a desperate struggle with the republican party; and, second, that the democrats of Georgia cannot afford to commission to represent them in the senate a man who has taken an important part in shaping the republican party's position on the paramount issue in the campaign.

To do so would be analogous to a citizen's engaging in a lawsuit through an attorney who viewed the case in the light most favorable to the opposing litigant.

Suppose that in the primary election of September 8 the democratic party of Georgia were to repudiate the national platform of the party by nominating either Smith or Watson—by nominating a man who is not in harmony with that platform—think of the destructive effect that would have upon the party's chances in every "close" or "doubtful" state!

After all, the real issue involved

In this campaign in Georgia is that of buttressing and aiding the party nationally.

No Georgia white man should be against the democratic party's organization nationally, especially in light of the fact that the republican party was the party that thrust scalawag and carpet-bag rule upon the south.

That the "leopard has not changed its spots" in this instance is manifested in the fact that today the titular head of the republican organization in Georgia is a negro, and a negro who has spent at least a part of his time recently in defaming this state on the printed records of the United States senate.

In determining for whom he should vote in this primary election the loyal democratic voter must ask himself this question: Which of the candidates stands most firmly upon the democratic platform and in support of the principles to which the democratic party is committed.

Seeking an answer, he will find this set of facts:

Governor Dorsey, leading candidate for the senate in this state, and Governor Cox, national nominee for the presidency, stand together, both in absolute harmony with the national platform and in favor of the league of nations with such reservations as those bespoken by the national platform and that have been approved by the president.

Tom Watson is wholly and diametrically opposed to the party's position.

Hoke Smith is wholly in accord with the position of the republican party and Senator Lodge.

The democrat who desires to perpetuate and strengthen the party will be driven by the very logic of the situation, if by nothing else, to the support of Governor Dorsey.

TOO LATE!

"He urged that 'the man from McDuffie be silenced.'"

This from the press report of Senator Smith's recent address at Macon.

A little late, Senator Smith—in fact, much too late!

The time for you to have silenced "the man from McDuffie" was when you had the chance in the state presidential convention in May.

Do you remember Senator, when, during that convention, and twenty hours prior to its adjournment, Hollis Randolph, a Palmer delegate, introduced a resolution reading as follows:

"Be it resolved, by the presidential preference convention, that we do hereby approve and endorse the splendid accomplishments of the democratic administration under the leadership of the great democratic executive, President Woodrow Wilson, with the aid of the democratic representatives in the senate and house of the federal congress?"

And do you remember how General Walter Harris, another Palmer delegate, got to his feet, spoke in behalf of that resolution, and, when half through, he turned to the Smith delegates, offered any one of them the remaining one-half of his time to join the Palmer delegates in thwarting the attempt to repudiate the administration? And how General Harris pleaded with the Smith men:—"For God's sake, isn't there just one of you Smith men who will speak a word against the consummation of this infamy?"

Then, do you remember, Senator, the absolute silence on the part of your supporters? And that when the resolution was put to the house it was defeated by the combined votes of the Smith-Watson delegates; to be followed later by the approval of the Watson platform stalling the administration, every Palmer delegate voting against the combined Smith-Watson delegation?

At that time, Senator, you had your opportunity to "silence the man from McDuffie"—when you were supporting and working with him; and when you figured that you would have his support in your ambition to retain your seat in the senate!

Then, Senator, was when Opportunity was knocking at your door; but you did not open it!

Then, Senator, was the psychological time for you to have "silenced the man from McDuffie." Just a word from you would have effectively "silenced" him!

It's too late now for you to beef about the "man from McDuffie!"

You let him have you and use you and toy with you just so long as he wanted to; and now that he has discarded you, it is too late—overlastingly too late—for you to boo-hoo and bluster about how "the man from McDuffie" must be "silenced!"

"The man from McDuffie" will be "silenced," all right, Senator; but it is written in the stars that you are not to be the one to "silence" him.

I. Why should we mourn for thee who know

That thy soul lives where all is fair,

Released from life lived here below,

From gloom which shadows it everywhere?

Think not of Tampa's desert strand,

Thou dweller in God's Holy Land; Thou dost not hear life's waning sea,

But songs which angels sing for thee.

II. Why should we breathe a sigh for thee,

Because thy life on earth was brief,

Thou heir of all eternity, Dear soul, is that a cause for grief?

The tree in autumn mourns its "shade,"

Because its leaves must "fall and fade;"

Thy fate it is to pass away—but thy soul's life will live for aye.

III. Because our lives so soon must close,

Our ashes in the grave to lie,

Scattered upon the ground to die; Therefore, should we weep tears for thee?

We who revere thy memory, And know thy soul has only fled From earth to Heaven, and is not dead.

CROWDS ARE PRESENT AT REVIVAL MEETING

A large congregation at the morning and evening services at the Calvary Methodist church on Gordon street Sunday, marked the opening of a two weeks' revival meeting.

The meetings are being conducted by Evangelist J. O. Hanes and the song services conducted by J. C. Stalmaker. Rev. Mr. Hanes made a great impression in his morning service Sunday, using for his text, "Have Faith in God." The evening service was well attended.

Last Week of This Campaign Finds the Loyal Democracy Of Georgia Firm and Confident

Race Clearly Between Dorsey and Watson With No Place for Middle Grounders—No More Back Yard Flirtations With Henry Cabot Lodge to be Tolerated—Serious Indictment of Watson by an Organized Labor Journal. Hoke Smith Caught in Another one of His Proverbial "Flops."

BY JAMES A. HOLLOMON

The final week of the campaign opens today with the loyal, unshaking democracy of Georgia marching down the straight road with firm and militant step—facing to the front and heads erect.

It is a crucial hour in Georgia—just as crucial as it was this day two years ago when the people of a state that stood in the forefront of the patriotic procession during the war determined to repudiate Thomas W. Hardwick, then senator, for his record of obstruction and administration-impeding during the war.

WIDE RANGES SHOWN ON COTTON MARKET

Review of Past Week Shows Unusually Wide Fluctuations—Prices Range Over 258 to 401 Points.

New Orleans, August 29.—Fluctuations were unusually wide in the cotton market last week, prices ranging over 258 to 401 points, showing the widest range at 2404 at its lowest, 2835 at its highest and closing at 2845. Net changes for the week were advances of 95 to 182 points. At the lowest levels prices were 180 to 209 points under the close of the preceding week. The close was within 10 to 20 points of the top. In the department prices of 10 points on middling, which closed at 29.

Weakness in the spot markets of the interior was the main cause of heavy selling in the early sessions of the week, but as spot markets gradually steadied, the contract market steadied with them until finally it met important new buying based on the bullish showing of private bureau reports on August 29. The close was within 10 to 20 points of the top. In the department prices of 10 points on middling, which closed at 29.

This week the main event will be the government's report on the condition of the crop on August 25, which is due at 10 o'clock Wednesday. Thus far private bureau reports have ranged from 68 per cent of normal up to 75, and indicated crop figures have ranged from 12,700,000 bales up to 13,750,000. The weather returns from the belt over Sunday may, on the opening of the week, detract somewhat from the interest that is felt in bureau day, but before the week is very old, the bureau report will be the dominating influence.

Following bureau day, many brokers seem to expect a quiet and trading market, because both of the large American markets, as well as many of the smaller ones, will end the week Friday evening in observance of the usual triple day holidays.

COX CAMPAIGN IN GOOD SHAPE

Governor Leaves New York Convinced Democratic Organization Will Now Run Harmoniously. Fine "Cementing" Work.

BY ROBERT O. BENDER. United News Staff Correspondent. New York, August 29.—Governor Cox, in leaving New York, feels that his campaign organization is now in the best shape it has been since its inception. Those who talked with him before he left could not but draw this conclusion—and there was ample evidence that the conclusion was a correct one. Cox is a believer in organization. Heretofore, while Cox himself has been the whole democratic campaign, the real democratic organization has been that created by President Wilson.

the governor's success in this "cementing" work could be afforded that the strong appeal for a united and militant party offensive embodied in W. G. McAdoo's speech Saturday at a luncheon in Cox's honor.

There are two main reasons for expecting a vastly more active democratic campaign from now on. The first and most important of these is that the Wilson-McAdoo wing of the party is now convinced that Cox is making the militant campaign to win, and win on issues that the administration has stood for. The second is the growing belief among democratic leaders that Cox, despite his heavy military background, has proved himself capable of meeting the situation as it has developed.

At San Francisco the Wilson-McAdoo-Palmer democrats were outspoken in their insistence that Cox should not win if he were nominated. For the campaign would deteriorate into a wet and dry fight. They are convinced now that Cox will not in fact lose if he is elected.

It may be stated on the authority of those in intimate contact with Cox that he will continue to ignore the issue but he does not believe it enters as a factor in the presidential race. So the administration forces are now getting behind Cox with vigor and organization. And between the two added factors, the democratic campaign should cease to lag.

Cox approaches his big western drive with the allied republican and democratic forces. He is going out into territory where he is not ignorant of the effective pre-convention campaign strategy. From all there were striking indications afterward that satisfactory results had been achieved.

McAdoo's Speech Aids. Perhaps no better testimonial of the success of the democratic campaign than the fact that McAdoo's speech Saturday at a luncheon in Cox's honor.

POLITICAL STRUGGLE OPENS IN MICHIGAN

Detroit, Mich., August 29.—The coming week will mark the beginning of this year's political battle in Michigan. A state-wide primary is to be held Tuesday. On the same day executive officers of the republican state central committee will meet here to perfect plans for an intensive campaign.

Friday Governor Cox is scheduled to deliver three addresses which the democrats say will be the opening gun of the most active campaign they have ever staged in the state.

In the primary, candidates for governor, lieutenant governor, state legislators and congressmen are to be nominated. None of the candidates seek the gubernatorial nomination. There is no contest for that office on the democratic ticket.

So the administration forces are now getting behind Cox with vigor and organization. And between the two added factors, the democratic campaign should cease to lag.

GIBRALTAR APES ORDERED KILLED

Only Wild Monkeys in Europe to Be Exterminated by Order of Military Governor.

London, August 29.—My first memory of Gibraltar is the memory of a lorry load of British soldiers, clad in khaki drill, singing "Over There" at the tops of their voices as they rode down the dazzling white road which leads past Ragged Staff landing to the north gate of the Rock. My second memory is of a small blob of yellow-brown which darted across that same road, mounted the old gray wall by the roadside and broke into a loud chattering.

There are now, or soon will be, none of these scamping blurs of yellow-brown which mounted the old gray walls of Gibraltar and chattered at cable passing on their way from Ragged Staff landing to the old town. For it is a tradition at Gibraltar that every governor of the Rock shall issue at least one edict in connection with the famous Gibraltar ape.

Only Few Left. The number of monkeys now left on the Rock must be very small, but it is not to be concluded from this that the task of exterminating them will prove an easy one. Catching them for deportation is a problem of exterminating them.

New High School. Anniston, Ala., August 29.—(Special)—The city board of education today closed a deal for the purchase of a block bounded by Leighton and Quindar avenues, Sixteenth and Seventeenth streets, as the site for the new high school building, for which a bond issue of $250,000 to include graded school enlargements and additions, was voted recently. The price paid by the board of education for the high school site was $15,000.

A large number of prominent Baptists from all parts of Georgia are expected to attend and make speeches. The program committee is arranging an interesting program for the occasion.

Lineman to Recover. Anniston, Ala., August 29.—(Special)—W. M. Watkins, a lineman who was seriously injured in a fall from a pole in Oxford while working as a lineman, will recover, hospital officials say. Watkins was unconscious for hours after the accident and was believed fatally injured.

REPUBLICAN BOOK TO BE DISTRIBUTED

New York, August 29.—The republican campaign book entitled "Republicanism of Nineteen Twenty," is about ready for distribution. It was announced tonight by its editor, Frank Hendrick, a New York lawyer. His part of the work occupies 51 of the 273 pages. The book is to be distributed to newspaper editors and campaign speakers, he said, and is expected to minimize research work on the national issues in the campaign.

BRITISH TROOPS FIRING ON ENRAGED CROWDS

Belfast, August 30.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Shankhill district of Belfast late tonight was a blazing inferno. Nearly a score of fires had been started, and virtually all the grocery stores and public houses owned by Catholics in the district were destroyed.

The police fired on the crowd during the disturbances, inflicting casualties.

At 5 o'clock this afternoon a minor battle started in Royal Avenue with the Belfast telegraph office as its center. A crowd of Sinn Féiners crept down Liberty street from Garrick Hill and opened a revolver fusillade on the unionists in the avenue, who replied vigorously.

$5,000 Is Posted That Dorsey Gets More Votes Than Smith

A certified check for five thousand dollars ($5,000) has been deposited with the city editor of The Constitution by a well-known Georgian who, for obvious reasons does not want his name used, but who is willing that his cash shall speak for itself.

The Constitution guarantees this check, or any part of it, will be deposited with the cashier of any bank in Atlanta, Macon, Columbus, Savannah, Augusta, Rome or Athens subject to the following conditions:

The man who leaves the check with The Constitution offers $5,000 or any part of it, that GOVERNOR DORSEY WILL GET MORE VOTES FOR THE UNITED STATES SENATE IN THE APPROACHING PRIMARY OF SEPTEMBER 8TH THAN SENATOR SMITH.

Anybody wishing to take any part of this offer will drop a line addressed to the city editor of The Constitution indicating the amount he will place against this offer, and stating that he has deposited a check for that amount with the cashier of any bank in any of the above cities, giving the name of the bank and the cashier.

If an Atlanta bank is named, The Constitution will, from the funds left with it, make immediate deposit to cover any amount placed, and if the bank is outside of Atlanta, The Constitution will immediately telegraph funds to cover, up to the amount of the cashier's check left with it.

The Constitution is in no wise responsible for this offer other than it guarantees the genuineness of the deposit and the fact that funds will be deposited to cover at a moment's notice.

Here's a chance for anybody in Georgia who believes that Smith will get more votes than Dorsey, to pick up from $5,000 and under.

Hungry Death Slowly Creeps On Lord Mayor

Terence MacSwiney in Such Condition That Food Would Do Him No Good—End Is Near.

BY PERCY SARR.
United News Staff Correspondent.
London, August 30.—Another long, anxious vigil, inside and outside of Brixton jail, where the lord mayor of Cork lay dying from starvation, began Monday night. It was not expected that Terence MacSwiney, the most striking figure in Irish politics today, would live through the night. But the government remained firm in its set purpose to refuse all interventions.

The lord mayor, who had been confined, between painful fits of coughing, "that my death will do more to smash the British empire than would my release." This was one of his last statements.

EYES OF COUNTRY ON GEORGIA RACE FOR THE SENATE

People of Many States Are Interested in Defeat of Senator Hoke Smith and Thomas E. Watson.

ENCOURAGING REPORTS RECEIVED IN ATLANTA

Every Indication Points to Victory for the Governor in September, With Smith Poor Third.

From all sections of the state and of the United States messages of good cheer were received at Dorsey headquarters yesterday indicating the coming election of the governor to the United States senate.

The ex-Hoke Smith club is growing in numbers daily and there now seems to be no doubt whatever that the senator will make a much poorer race than he did in April and that he will run third.

The following telegram was received from Coleman, Texas, indicating how the good democrats of that state feel about the election:

"Governor Hugh M. Dorsey, Atlanta: Texas indorses the Wilson administration today by defeating Bailey by one hundred thousand. Hope you will give Hoke Smith same kind of dose. (Signed)

"J. M. CRAWFORD," Mayor Blalock of Columbia, S. C., was a caller at headquarters Monday. He said that the people of South Carolina were very much interested in the Georgia race and that a large majority of the democrats of his state were hoping for the defeat of Smith, Watson and Hardwick.

Dorsey Strong in Gordon. Rev. Chas. S. Henderson, pastor of the First Baptist church at Calhoun, was in Atlanta Monday and stated that Governor Dorsey is very strong in Gordon county.

"I am not in politics, of course, except as a citizen who wishes to see the best men elected to office. I am a democrat and for Governor Dorsey for the United States senate."

Editor Ralph Meeks, of The Calhoun Times, is another ex-Hoke Smith man who called at Dorsey headquarters Monday. Mr. Meeks stands by old-time democracy. He said that the contest in Gordon is between Dorsey and Watson, Senator Smith will be third man, he declared.

Interested in Carolina. Mayor Blalock, of Columbia, S. C., called at Dorsey headquarters with the information that the people of his state are taking deep interest in the senatorial race in Georgia. "We are for Governor Dorsey and hope he will win. We believe he will win. He ought to win. We had very much the same fight with Cole Elease which you are having here with Watson. Finally we beat Elease and we can beat him at any time now by 30,000 majority." Mayor Blalock is a native Georgian and has farming interests in Pike, Upson and Monroe counties.

W. B. Bowen, president of the Exchange bank and of the Empire Mercantile company at Fitzgerald, predicts that the governor will carry Ben Hill county. He says that numbers of former Hoke Smith supporters have left him and have come over to Dorsey. The governor is growing stronger every day. The unwavering democrats have come.

Probers Secure No Light On That $15,000,000 Fund Cox Lays to Republicans

RAILROADS LOSE SUPPORTING HAND OF U. S. TREASURY

After Tonight the Lines of the Country Must Begin Operations on Own Resources.

LOSS OF $600,000,000 FOR THE GOVERNMENT

This Loss Accumulated During the Six Months in Which Earnings of the Roads Were Guaranteed.

Washington, August 30.—(By the Associated Press.)—Railroads of the country will begin operation on their own resources tomorrow night after having cost the government approximately $600,000,000 monthly for the six months in which their earnings were guaranteed by the transportation act. The carriers will be allowed further aid only through loans from the revolving fund which the act created.

Earnings of the roads will fall about $600,000,000 below their standard return for the period since March 1, according to estimates today by the bureau of railway economics. Fewer than half a score of lines have produced revenue sufficient to equal actual operating expenses. The rest are to be made up by the federal treasury.

Most all of the roads, however, have indicated already to the interstate commerce commission and through it to the treasury that they will have money coming to them as a result of the guarantee. The treasury has received dozens of certificates for advances under the guarantee within the last ten days, and more are expected tomorrow.

Secretary Houston said, if the roads do not ask for an advance against probable deficits before tomorrow night they must wait for a final compilation of the sums the government owes them.

Of the 1,194 lines of consequence in the country, 37 have accepted the government's proposal for a division of the surplus above the standard return, and a guarantee of earnings should the revenues fall short. All of these accepting the proposal will be entitled to a final adjustment of accounts by the treasury and the payment, where the revenues were low, or the guaranteed amounts.

Among the lines not accepting the guarantee proposal were the Southern and Pere Marquette systems. Neither of these have earned revenues equivalent to the amount which they would receive under the guarantee, according to Julius H. Parneille, director of the bureau of railway economics.

In the first four months of the guarantee, March, April, May and June, railroad revenues topped actual expenditures for operation only once. The March revenues represented a net return of $12,700,000, while there were deficits of $23,000,000.

Will Hays, Republican Chairman, and Homer Cummings, Former Democratic Chairman, Give Senators No Information

HAYS BRANDS CHARGE FALSE AND LIBELOUS

And Counters by Alleging the Liquor Interests Are Raising Money for Cox. Hays Also Alleges Government Agencies Are Being Used by Democrats.

Chicago, August 30.—An extended examination today of Will Hays, republican national chairman, and Homer S. Cummings, former democratic national chairman, by the senate committee investigating campaign expenditures, failed to throw any light on the $15,000,000 fund which Governor Cox charged the republican party was seeking to raise in "an attempt to corrupt the American electorate and buy the presidency."

The committee also heard Representative H. D. Flood, of Virginia, chairman of the democratic congressional campaign committee, and former Representative Joseph L. Rhinock, of Kentucky, treasurer of the committee.

Outstanding points in the maze of figures through which the committee struggled were:

Testimony by Mr. Hays that the republican national committee's budget for the presidential campaign called for expenditures of $2,079,037.20.

Declaration by Mr. Cummings that, allowing for the increased cost of printing, clerical hire, rents and other expenses, the republican campaign cost for all purposes, a national committee should be able to stage "a fair, decent and stiff campaign with reasonable publicity" for $3,000,000. With that amount of money, he said, the national chairman need not worry about finances.

Mr. Hays also testified the republican national committee was seeking to raise approximately $1,000,000 to be donated to state committees for their local campaigns, making a total of slightly more than $4,000,000 in the republican campaign chest for all purposes.

Mr. Cummings declared he believed this amount was excessive and pointed to the 1916 campaign, saying he learned in his home state of Connecticut the republicans spent $250,000, and that he considered that too much for a commonwealth of that size.

"If you let the state committees run wild," he said, "you get an accumulated expenditure which in itself is an outstanding evidence of corruption. I suggest that this is just what is going to happen to the republicans this year."

"Has either party any monopoly in this practice?" asked Senator Edge.

"There is no monopoly upon the subject," rejoined Mr. Cummings, "but there is no doubt about the republican success in that direction."

GOV. COX DENIES "WETS" ARE GIVING TO CAMPAIGN FUND

Democratic Candidate Quickly Answers the Testimony of G. O. P. Chairman Hays Before Senate Probers.

WHITE ALSO REPLIES TO CHARGES OF HAYS

White Says Democratic Fund Is Less Than $65,000 at Present—Denies the Use of Government Agencies to Scatter Democratic Propaganda.

Columbus, Ohio, August 30.—Answering testimony of Will H. Hays, chairman of the republican national committee, before the senate subcommittee investigating campaign expenditures in Chicago today, Governor Cox, the democratic presidential nominee, declared this evening, "that the wets have not contributed a dollar to my campaign and they will not."

The governor declared any statement to the effect that the wets are contributing to his campaign to be "absurd on its face," adding that only made reply because "silence might be misconstrued."

Cox to Address Farmers. The governor returned here today from his eastern tour. He will speak at the Ohio state fair tomorrow afternoon on agriculture, and said he might also, headed by a league of nations with the farmers. He said this evening he was preparing a statement on "the last plan," meaning the plan for a world court of justice outlined by Senator Harding, his opponent, in a recent speech.

The governor said he was surprised to see the general interest in politics displayed so early there as it generally is the custom of New Yorkers to forget politics until after Labor day.

He said he ran into a lot of independent thought in New York and was "surprised at its volume."

He said independent thought had been informed on his arrival here by a "close political observer" that the league of nations has "overrun party lines."

ENTITLED TO TAKE PART IN PRIMARY, HE TELLS DORSEY

All Laws Conflicting With 19th Amendment of Federal Constitution Repealed, Rules Attorney General of Georgia.

WOMEN NOT OBLIGED TO REGISTER, HE SAYS

Despite Refusal of Chairman Flynt, Subcommittee May Hold Meeting to Discuss Situation Created by Amendment.

That the women of Georgia are given the right to vote in the coming primary and general election and that it is not necessary for them to register in order to do so is the declaration made by Attorney General R. A. Denny in a lengthy opinion which he gave the governor yesterday. The opinion is also signed by Graham Wright, the assistant attorney general.

Mr. Denny argues that the women may not register because they cannot take the oath prescribed for male citizens, but that they cannot be prevented from voting because the nineteenth amendment to the federal constitution distinctly declared that "the right of citizens of the United States shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of sex."

Mr. Denny holds that the constitution of Georgia, the state registration law and all other laws conflicting with the above-quoted section of the constitution are repealed and made null. He says that while "it may be desirable to change the laws and constitution of Georgia to clarify the situation, it is not necessary and that any woman possessing the necessary qualifications under the constitution is entitled to the right of suffrage, and no enabling act or statute is necessary."

Registration Question. On the question of registration he says: "Instead of a change of the present law with regard to registration so that women can vote, an enactment is necessary requiring them to register, and unless such law is passed, they are entitled to exercise their constitutional right of franchise under the constitution of the United States and vote without registration, provided, of course, they are qualified otherwise under the constitution and laws of Georgia."

"Any other construction than this would operate as a disfranchisement on account of sex in violation of the constitution of the United States or would demand some self-constituted state authority to enlarge on the registration laws of Georgia. This latter creates a legal absurdity and consequently, until legislative action is had, women can vote without registration."

Mr. Denny's opinion follows: "Opinion of Denny. 'Gov. Hugh M. Dorsey, the Capitol. 'My Dear Sir: 'Replying to your verbal request for my opinion, I submit the following: 'The United States constitutional amendment No. 19, having been ratified, all laws of Georgia in conflict therewith are repealed and made null. He says that while "it may be desirable to change the laws and constitution of Georgia to clarify the situation, it is not necessary and that any woman possessing the necessary qualifications under the constitution is entitled to the right of suffrage, and no enabling act or statute is necessary."

GOVERNOR WANTS JOINT DISCUSSION

Separate Debates With Smith or Cooper Would Only Divert Public Attention From Dangers of Watsonism, He Says.

Reiterating statements that have already been given to the press by him to the effect that he will gladly engage in a joint debate with his three senatorial opponents but will not consent to a discussion of issues involved in the senatorial campaign today, Governor Hugh M. Dorsey last night addressed a letter to the senator in reply to his written request for a division of time.

The receipt of this letter by the government marked the first direct communication between the two candidates with reference to a joint discussion.

"I am confident," the governor says, "that a separate discussion with you or Mr. Cooper would only divert public attention from the danger that threatens democracy through the candidacy of Hon. Thomas E. Watson, who represents in his platform and by his constant record the principles that promise destruction to international peace, domestic tranquility and party harmony."

Reply by Governor. Governor Dorsey's letter follows: "Hon. Hoke Smith, Atlanta, Ga.: Dear Sir: I have just been handed your communication of this date informing me of the appointment of Messrs. Felix Jackson and William Schley Howard as your representatives to arrange debates for joint discussion between yourself and other candidates for the senate."

"Upon receipt of information that representatives will be designated by the 'other candidates,' I will promptly designate representatives to arrange, in conjunction with all, said representatives, the time, place and conditions for a joint discussion of the issues involved in the campaign in which Mr. Thomas E. Watson, Mr. J. R. Cooper, you and I are offering for the senatorial nomination."

"As your letter of today affords my first direct information that you desire an individual debate with me, rather than a joint debate with all of your opponents, it is proper that I should call your attention to the published statements I have heretofore issued in reply to suggestions for such debates, which have reached me through the columns of The Atlanta Journal."

"I assume that you are extending your invitation to me, exclusively. (Continued on Page 13, Column 4.)

YOUNG BOY MEETS DEATH IN EFFORT TO "HOP" A TRAIN

"Let me show you how I can hop a train," said 14-year-old Charles Lewis, of Bolton, Ga., Monday afternoon, while he and two of his playmates were walking a railroad track on which an L. & N. freight train was moving.

His playmates turned to watch him. He caught at one of the bars at the end of a car, but missed. The soft embankment on which he was standing gave away, causing him to lose his balance. A second later his life was crushed out under the heavy trucks of the moving train.

Britain And Japan Have Not Accepted U.S. Views on Russia

All the Other Great Powers Express General Accord With the Attitude of Washington.

RUSS-POLE PARLEYS SEEM AT STANDSTILL

Agreement Reached to Transfer Negotiations to Riga, But the Envoys Are Still at Minsk.

Washington, August 30.—General agreement with the views of the United States as to Russia has now been expressed by all of the allied powers except two—Great Britain and Japan.

A formal preliminary statement of Italy's concurrence, transmitted through the counselor of the Italian embassy, has been received, while similar assurances have reached the state department from Poland.

PEACE PARLEYS AT A STANDSTILL

Warsaw, August 30.—(By the Associated Press.)—While Riga has been agreed upon by the Polish and Russian soviet governments as the place for future peace negotiations, it was said at the foreign ministry late last night that no word had been received from the Latvian government regarding the Russian request for permission to hold the conference in Riga.

A wireless message from Minsk says that members of the Polish peace delegation and those who accompanied it to the conference with the soviet emissaries, are becoming ill because of the unsanitary conditions under which they are compelled to exist.

Among those who are seriously ill is Maurice Pate, of Denver, a member of the American relief administration.

The message says that conditions

FOREMAN TELLS ALL ABOUT HIS TROUBLES

"For two years before I began taking Tanlac my health was so bad I lost two or three hours from work every day, but since taking five bottles of the medicine I am in as fine health as I ever was in my life," said C. H. Melton, construction foreman for the Western Union Telegraph Co., living at 3336 Tracy avenue, Kansas City, Mo.

"I had stomach trouble and nervous indigestion for twenty years," he continued. "Five years ago I got in such bad shape that everything I ate caused me terrible suffering from gas and at times I could hardly breathe. I had a stuffy feeling all the time and was so constipated I had to keep taking laxatives. My head ached sometimes like it would simply burst and I became so weak and run-down it looked like I would have to give up my work entirely."

"A friend of mine had tried Tanlac and recommended it so highly I decided to take it, too, and in three days my appetite began to improve and my stomach got better. I kept on improving rapidly and now I eat anything I want, have gained eleven pounds and never have stomach trouble, headaches or constipation any more. I never felt better in my life and it is a real pleasure to recommend Tanlac."

"Tanlac is sold in Atlanta exclusively by Jacobs' Pharmacy Co." (adv.)

The lower picture shows the pallbearers lifting the flag-draped casket to the hearse following services for the gallant soldier at the Second Baptist church. The funeral was one of the most largely attended ever held in the city. After the church was packed to the doors hundreds of others, unable to gain admittance, stood with bared heads on the capitol lawn opposite, during the service. When the head of the funeral cortege reached the cemetery the line of foot escort and vehicles stretched back more than half a mile.

42 STEAMSHIP LINES INDICTED BY U. S. JURY

New York, August 30.—Forty-two steamship companies and freight brokers, including virtually all the big trans-Atlantic lines, were indicted by the federal grand jury here today on charges of conspiracy and restraint of trade in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

The indictments included the International Mercantile Marine, Atlantic Transport, Cunard Steamship Companies, Ltd., Anchor Line, Booth American Shipping Corporation, Compagnie Generale Transatlantique, Kerr Steamship Company, members of the Trans-Atlantic Association Freight conference and directors of the Steamship Freight Brokers' association.

An injunction and dissolution suit against the defendants named in the indictments as members of the Steamship Freight Brokers' association and the associated freight conferences was entered simultaneously.

The indictment charged and the petition in the suit alleged that the defendants on January 1, 1917, conspired and have since continuously violated the Sherman law by restraining interstate trade and foreign commerce in grain, oil, lumber and other commodities, and manufactured articles produced throughout the United States and in foreign countries.

Tennessee Antis Intend to Revoke Suffrage Action

Opponents of Suffrage Say They Have Clear Majority in House and Will Act Today.

Nashville, Tenn., August 30.—The Tennessee house of representatives, though reinforced by the presence of the thirty-eight filibustering members, who have been in Alabama for more than a week, failed by two votes to have a quorum of 66 this afternoon when it reconvened. Although it stayed in session four and a half hours, while sergeants-at-arms attempted to find two more members, the search was unsuccessful, and adjournment was taken until tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

The lack of the quorum was due to the absence of some of the suffrage members who were unable to reach Nashville this afternoon. Their associates, finding themselves in the minority, refused to fill the quorum for fear that the opponents of ratification of the suffrage amendment might attempt to nullify the action of ten days ago, when the ratification resolution was adopted, 49 to 47.

The afternoon was enlivened by

INTERESTING BY-PLAY AT DECATUR MEETING

Two Cautious Fail to Indicate That Smith Is as Strong as Dorsey in DeKalb.

Senator Hoke Smith spoke yesterday at noon at the courthouse in Decatur to a large assembly of DeKalb county voters. He was introduced by Judge John S. Candler, who lauded him as being a great lawyer and who impressed upon his hearers the fact that Senator Smith had supported General Gordon when he was opposed for the United States senate by Pat Calhoun.

He argued that everybody who favored General Gordon ought to be for Smith now for that reason.

Two Cautious Caucuses. The fact developed today that Judge Candler, during the past two weeks has called two caucuses in his law office in the Candler building in Atlanta—ostensibly to make an impartial estimate as to who was the stronger in DeKalb county—Smith or Dorsey—with the view of centering on one of the two against Watson.

When the first meeting assembled at Judge Candler's office it was found to be in favor of Dorsey, and Judge Candler having taken the initiative in the movement, persuaded the meeting to look further into the situation and to reassemble at a later date.

Another call was sent out to well known citizens of DeKalb county and the second meeting was held in Judge Candler's office.

Again the opinion developed among those who had been brought together by Judge Candler that more of them were in favor of Dorsey than Smith.

No action was taken at this meeting, the judges taking the position that the matter had better still go over for another investigation.

The investigation has never yet been completed, but the judge broke the traces yesterday and decided the question for himself.

This statement was made at the courthouse in Decatur yesterday by a DeKalb citizen who is familiar with the facts and who says he will give full particulars under affidavit, if necessary.

As to General Gordon.

When the Decatur meeting broke up yesterday, Senator Smith's sentimental argument about General Gordon was mashed into flinders by an old Confederate soldier who sat on the steps of the courthouse.

"That argument won't get anybody as long as the grandson of General Gordon, Hugh H. Gordon, of Athens, is the state campaign manager for Governor Dorsey."

Those who heard this comment received it with a cheer.

Hugh H. Gordon, prominent business man of Athens, is the only living grandson of Gen. John B. Gordon, and he is brilliantly directing the campaign of Hugh Dorsey against Hoke Smith for the senate, using Governor Dorsey's state campaign manager as his ally.

The Senator's Speech.

Senator Smith's speech was along the usual lines. He denounced the party record. He stated that the Constitution and declared it had forced Governor Dorsey into the race to "keep me from defeating Tom Watson."

The senator stated that he had attempted at various times to enter into a debate with Governor Dorsey, but that each time he had been unsuccessful.

He stated that Tom Watson had always been a tool of Clark Howell and was being used in his political machinations. He claimed that Watson's campaign was run only on a basis of abuse and vituperation.

Senator Smith closed his speech by reviewing his work in the senate and defending the democratic party record. He stated that it was only common sense for the voters of Georgia to return him to the senate.

BROOKLYN WALKING BECAUSE OF STRIKE

New York, August 30.—With the strike-bound Brooklyn Rapid Transit system only able to operate 41 two-car elevated and subway trains and no surface cars at all, great throngs of Brooklynites went home tonight in motor trucks, furniture vans, buses and vehicles of every description. Other thousands walked across the East River bridges which were a mass of hurrying humanity.

Those who were lucky rode in the Interborough subway which has one line running to Brooklyn. This road was crowded to capacity.

The greatest jams were at the terminals of the East River bridges and at the Long Island railroad station in Brooklyn. Emergency municipal bus lines established by Governor Whelan, commissioner of plant and structures, did much to relieve the congestion. Nearly a thousand buses carried passengers over established routes for five cents, while operators of hundreds of other vehicles sought passengers from Manhattan to Brooklyn and back at widely varying prices.

City officials announced that they were on the trail of profiteers who are raising exorbitant prices. The penalty, they said, would be the revoking of licenses.

Extra municipal ferryboat service added large numbers to cross from Manhattan who otherwise would have been delayed for hours getting home. Many business concerns sent their employees home in trucks.

No attempt will be made to run surface cars in Brooklyn tomorrow, R. T. officials said tonight, but they are to have them moving soon with new men.

The possibility of all New York including the congested boroughs of Manhattan and Bronx, being completely tied up by a street railway and subway strike which began on Sunday when the employees of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit lines walked out, was voiced Monday night at a meeting of the B. R. T. strikers.

James Sheridan, chairman of the strike committee, in explaining the absence from the meeting of two other committeemen, made the announcement that his colleagues were conferring in New York with representatives of men on the Manhattan lines.

"I hope," he said, "that within a few days Manhattan will be tied up as tight as Brooklyn is tonight." His remarks were greeted by cheers.

Sheridan said that the two men had been asked to confer with the representatives of the Manhattan lines, and predicted that the conference would last well into the morning.

The Same Old Schlitz-Aged in the Same Old Way

ANY drink which is incompletely fermented before you take it is apt to complete its fermentation in your stomach—causing flatulence and biliousness.

Many beverages now on the market are only partially fermented, having been rushed out in less than forty-eight hours. They are neither good, nor good for you. They are likely to interfere with everything they meet in your stomach.

Schlitz is thoroughly aged—fully ripened. It will not cause biliousness.

Schlitz is pure. It is aged in glass-lined tanks, cooled in washed air, filtered through white wood pulp. Schlitz is healthful. It comes to you under the familiar label your father knew with the alcoholic content reduced to the limit prescribed by the Federal Government.

The Brown Bottle protects its purity and healthfulness until it reaches your glass.

PRICES TRENDING TO LOWER LEVELS

According to Report of U. S. Chamber of Commerce—Steady Drop Foreseen for Remainder of Year.

Washington, August 30.—Business and industrial conditions during the remainder of the calendar year will be marked by a "definite trend to a somewhat lower level of prices," according to a semi-annual report upon crops and business given out today by the United States Chamber of Commerce. The committee which prepared the report, added the general financial opinion in the country was that the readjustment would be accomplished without "financial calamity or any sudden economic disaster."

Tight money, unrest of labor, the loosened bonds in some phases of social life, the Russian-Poland war, and the high cost of necessities are enumerated as disturbing business factors, but in the opinion of the committee there is no need for the country to become panicky over any of these matters.

"Amid all the cross currents and eddies of the industrial demand, a definite trend seems to be slowly developing toward a gradually increased gain of supply upon the demand and a somewhat lower level of prices," the committee reported. "Here and there there are signs of running on reduced time. It is a scattered and local matter rather than a general proposition."

Automobile Industry.—The automobile industry seems to be headed toward somewhat lessened output. Also the jewelry business in New England is slowing down. Contrivance paper mills are busy and full of orders. Equally is this true of the metal lines.

"Whether mining is busy and prosperous or the reverse, depends upon the nature of the metal. Gold mining still suffers from high cost of production and the jewelry business is slow. Silver mining feels the effect of the decline in the price of silver. The demand for silver is low and the demand not equal to the possibilities of supply. Lead is high because of the industrial demand. Copper is dull because of a supply not disposed of. Iron mining is good. Phosphate mining in the south are doing well after many lean years."

"Contraction in financial credits has put 'wild catting' in the oil regions out of business, which makes business the dull because of supplies for drilling oil wells are no longer called for."

"Contraction in building have slowed down because of high prices and scarcity of both labor and materials."

The Crop Outlook.—The promise now, and it is a fulfilled one, for 2,000,000,000 bushels of corn, 800,000,000 bushels of wheat, both winter and spring, and for a cotton yield of about 12,000,000 bales. Cotton, however, is not a safe reckoning as yet. There will be more cuts than last year, and more tobacco, which is everywhere good—more potatoes—more rice about the largest crop on record. More sugar, both cane and beet, and especially a hay crop, such proportions as should have a marked effect in reducing the cost of live stock and of dairy and poultry products.

"From every state and every section comes the complaint of the lack of cars as the greatest of all handicaps to the transaction of business, and the lack of cars is the cause of the continuance of high prices."

Monday Afternoon Proves a Scorching; More Hot Weather

Monday came within one degree of being the warmest day of the month. At noon the official figures on the roof of the Atlanta Trust Company building showed a mark of 85. At 2 o'clock it was going two degrees higher, or 87, which is one notch lower than a mark of 88 established the first day of August this year.

The weather man is of the opinion that the rainy spell we experienced is at an end for the present. His prediction for Atlanta and throughout Georgia is generally fair. The presence of a slight area of high atmospheric pressure over the lower Mississippi, with a low over the upper lakes, would seem to indicate a few fair and very warm days this week, says the weather forecast.

The showers of Saturday and Sunday added their quota to the precipitation record of the month and the year. So far this month the record is 10.2 inches. The year to date are 52.55 inches. The record for an entire year has more than been broken. The best previous figures were 49 inches.

The weather is fair and generally warmer in most sections of the country, especially in the south. Showers occurred in Georgia and Florida over the twenty-four-hour period ending Monday morning. Chief Clinch at New Orleans, issued the following summary for the cotton region states yesterday: "Temperatures have been moderate to moderate during the past 48 hours. Numerous showers, mostly light to moderate, were reported Sunday in the central portion of the belt. Scattered showers also were reported Monday from South Carolina to southern Georgia and in Arkansas and eastern Oklahoma."

County Commission To Discuss Only Routine Matters

The regular monthly meeting of the Fulton county commission will be held at the courthouse Wednesday afternoon, when routine matters will be taken up. According to J. Oscar Mills, chairman of the commission, the commission will not consider fixing the tax rate for the county for 1920, until the tax digest has been completed, which will be the latter part of September. Mr. Mills stated that there would be no called meeting until about the 20th of next month. He further stated that the county was not planning to ask the federal government for any appropriation for road work.

HENSON TAKES CHARGE OF LEGION CAMPAIGN

Former Enlisted Man, New State Commander of Legion, Actively at Work.

A. L. Henson, Calhoun, the former enlisted man now commanding the Georgia department of the American Legion, has taken full charge of the legion's anti-Watson-Hardwick campaign and from now on will direct the fight against the two men from here, it was announced yesterday at legion headquarters in the Healey building.

In the absence of Mr. Henson, since he was unanimously elected to the position of state commander, he has been directed by Trammell Scott, who headed the original committee from Atlanta, to be actively identified with the campaign.

The action of Mr. Henson in taking command of the legion forces is in accordance with the unanimous vote of the state convention in Augusta in passing resolutions condemning both Watson and Hardwick and pledging itself to work for their complete repudiation at the polls on September 8. Since the convention, Mr. Henson has been busy getting his personal business affairs in shape to allow him to come to Atlanta and remain here until after the election. Accordingly he is here, and aside from taking occasional trips for the purpose of addressing the voters in some sections of the state, will spend the next ten days in the city.

Mr. Henson expressed himself as delighted with the progress of the campaign thus far, and personally thanked every member of the committee for the work they have done. "We only have to keep this work, already so well begun, up and out fight is won," he said.

"I find," continued Henson, "that our organization for this fight is complete. District chairmen are carrying out their part of the work and post commanders in every locality are co-operating to the fullest extent. Our organization is running as smoothly as we could ask."

"We are receiving numerous requests for 200,000 leaflets and the bureau will be full able to furnish them."

"In this connection I have just received word over long distance from Mr. Henson, speaking today on scheduled time, did not have as large a crowd as William A. Simpson, one of our speakers had, when he spoke there a few days ago."

Smith's Campaign in Muscogee Collapses; Dorsey Easy Winner

The following telegram to the Dorsey headquarters yesterday explains itself:

Columbus, Ga., August 30, 1920.
"Hugh M. Dorsey Headquarters, Kimball House, Atlanta.
"Hoke Smith campaign seems to have utterly collapsed in this county. Prominent Smith supporters admit that Dorsey will carry the county by a big majority. Lots of Dorsey money available without any takers. Dorsey meeting Tuesday night promises to be the greatest political meeting in the history of the county. It certainly looks good for Dorsey and Democracy."

TRAMMELL FEELS SURE OF HIS CANDIDACY

Railroad Commissioner Paul B. Trammell, who recently announced his candidacy for re-election, has joined the throng of candidates at the Kimball house, where he has opened headquarters, in meeting visitors from all parts of the state and carrying on an extensive correspondence with friends in every section of Georgia.

Commissioner Trammell was first appointed to the commission, on which his father had served many years, and was subsequently elected to his present place for a full term. He expresses himself as well pleased over the outlook for his re-election.

"I have already had reports from friends in nearly every county in the state," Commissioner Trammell said, "and based on these, I confidently believe I shall carry 125 counties, if not more. Every mail is bringing me the most gratifying letters, many coming even from sources from which I had not expected them. Especially pleasing to me was the cordial endorsement of Judge George Hillier, veteran Georgian, with whom I served so long on the commission, and who is now a prominent Georgian. He has given me voluntary assurance of their active support."

"There isn't a doubt in my mind that I shall sweep Georgia overwhelmingly on September 8."

McLENDON ISSUES CALL FOR MEETING ON MOTOR TAXES

With a view to clearing up several doubtful points in connection with the administration of the motor vehicle act, Secretary of State S. G. McLendon has called a meeting of the attorney general, the state superintendent of education, the engineer of the highway department, and the commissioners of the fifth congressional district to be held in his office Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock.

One of the matters which the meeting will discuss is the payment of tax on trucks used to carry children to and from school. WALKER CONFIDENT OF WINNING CONTEST

Spends Monday in Atlanta En Route to Gainesville, Where He Speaks Today.

En route to Gainesville, Clifford Walker, candidate for governor, spent Monday in Atlanta at his headquarters, looking over the large pile of accumulated mail, and receiving the congratulations of visitors at the headquarters who have sensed the political certainty which his supporters feel for his election.

On Tuesday Mr. Walker will address the voters of Hall and surrounding counties in the interest of his candidacy, beginning the itinerary which will take him for several days through the northern section of the state.

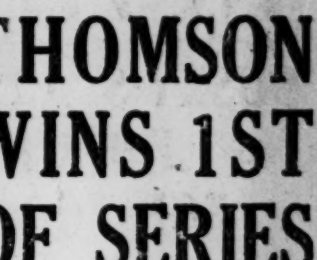

Mr. Walker proposes to wind up his campaign in the northern counties of Georgia, going into some of the reputed Hardwick strongholds to deliver the speeches that have netted him so many followers in the southern and middle sections of the state.

Mr. Walker, while at headquarters Monday, was greatly encouraged over the many letters and telegrams that had come to him containing good news from all parts of Georgia.

While he had no formal statement to make, Mr. Walker gave it as his confident belief that he had come almost to the eve of his victory with a lead over Thomas W. Hardwick that was certain to give him the governorship of Georgia, and many of the callers who via the headquarters during the day enthusiastically expressed the same belief.

Wednesday he will enter the Seventh district for speeches at Calhoun, Gordon county, at 11:30 a. m., and Cartersville, Bartow county, at 3 p. m. OPERATION his left hand and the right arm to the left for the worse Monday, when the doctor said the operation had failed. The salary wing of the home rule party, led by Babe's doctor cut a new deal for him in return for his efforts to clean up and forego, in the effort to thumb up the trouble, the doctor said was all his aesthetic Ruth needed.

Ruth said after the operation on Monday the doctor told her the trouble was not due to the bite of a vicious double-bug which was the first movie film, "Reading the Contrary," the doctor said. Late the night she was overworked, which has exasperated her.

Her attorneys obtained an injunction Monday in the supreme court to prevent the National Film company and the E. Sales company from showing the picture. Arguments as to the order were set for Tuesday.

DUSKY STARS AT PONCEY FOR TODAY

BY FRED HANEY.

The Atlanta-American All-Stars will meet the Federal Prison Indians this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock on the Ponce de Leon park diamond. This is the second time that the prisoners have played outside of the prison walls, the first time was when they tied up with the Atlanta American Stars on the Morris Brown campus, in a double-header. The prisoners won the first encounter and lost the second. Pindexter, federal prison's star pitcher, acted the role of "iron man" in these games and although he got away with it in the first game against weak pitcher, it was all he could do to keep the pace in the second encounter with Scott, Atlanta Stars' best bat.

The manager of the Atlanta American Stars stated last night that if Pindexter should take the mound for the Indians this afternoon the fans of the local pastime should expect nothing more than an extra inning battle, for he was going to use Scott against the prisoners and if these young right-handers are right there will certainly be a great battle for the fans. The Atlanta Black Crackers were defeated Sunday afternoon by the Federal Prison Indians on the latter diamond by the score of 1 to 0. Pindexter was able to reach only one runner, who was Scott, the first time this being the pitcher. The Federal Prison Indians have been beaten only twice this year. The first time was by the New Orleans team of the colored Southern league, while the second defeat was handed them by the Atlanta All-Stars in the last game of a double-header a few days ago. The Atlanta-American All-Stars have a great record for the season.

There will be music furnished by the federal prison musicians. "Sober" Wright, the greatest colored baseball fan in the south, will also be present. Wright was once a professional player, but after failure of the series and both are capable of putting up big league baseball.

KING ALBERT GIVES MEDALS TO ATHLETES

Antwerp, August 30.—King Albert, of Belgium, presented the Olympic medals to the winners in the athletic, swimming and rowing events at the stadium this afternoon.

It would have been necessary to use a large basket for the American share alone of the statuettes about one hundred awards for athletics, the share of the United States representatives was nearly forty.

Promotion for J. R. Cook.

The freight traffic department of the Seaboard Air Line railroad announced Monday the promotion of Joseph R. Cook to the position of contracting agent at Atlanta, to be effective September 1. Mr. Cook will have offices in the Citizens and Southern Bank building.

BEN H. HILL

Will Be Elected Judge of the Court of Appeals.

By a seven years' service on that bench and five years' service on that Superior Court Bench of Fulton County he established a record second to no judge in the State's history.

Judge Wade, Chief Judge of the said Court of Appeals, declared that Judge Hill's opinions appearing in the thirteen volumes of the Appeals Report "are characterized by learning and ability and are of great service to the bench and the bar." His own qualifications for service on this bench and the fact that he is the only son and namesake of Georgia's great statesman, lawyer and patriot who is still remembered and loved by the people, will insure his overwhelming election.

EUROPE IS NOW so safe that it would make a mad porcupine look like a birthday cake. It is so peaceful that it would make the engine of Hades look like Lovers' Lane, and so quiet that it would make a sewing circle of boiler factories sound like a moth in a rubber blanket.

RUSSIA SOOKS POLAND over the dome with a sounding sledge and chirps, "Take that for the sounding of A."

POLAND TRUMPS that with an axe over Russia's bean and squawks "You started an octave too low. Chirp Fourteen Points higher."

TURKEY TURNS UP an orchestra of scimitars and holiers, "You're singing through your nose." So the Turk flattens Serbia's nose so she can't sing through it.

A LOT OF GERMAN GO for a picnic near Poland and take a lot of bayonets along to keep the rain off. They meet a Belgian picnic playing parlor games with blackjacks. So the two plonies consolidate in order to have more fun and get club rates for the funeral expenses.

THE EUROPEAN ROUGH HOUSE Committee all slapped their signposts on the Peace Treaty, but it doesn't mean anything more than a rainbow does to a color-blind ant-eater. Peace is down to a flat-bottomed zero. D'Annunzio is strumming love tunes in Fiume on a guitar that won't bend when you wrap it over a Slav's skull-piece. Bulgaria is ready to toss up a one-way coin to decide when she takes another sock to Poland to help harvest the fall crop of Soviet whiskers.

THE SHEPHERDS ARE IN BLOOM in Ireland. The Slovaks are playing rock-a-bye baby with the Cosacs. They throw the rock and it's bye-bye-baby for the other birds. Everything is just as peaceful as two bulldogs chinning themselves on one soup bone. Hank Ford ought to build another peace scow and get the boys out of the trenches for the Yuletide holidays.

LET'S SIGN THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS PARCHMENT and grab some of the foreign peace that passes all understanding.

SAM McVEA STARTS HIS WORKOUTS

Sam McVea with Battling Mimms and Jack Ward with Billy Hooper are staging practice tilts at the colored Y. M. C. A. in preparation for their coming fight on September 1 that would credit to a real headliner on a fast card. McVea will work today at 2 o'clock with Mimms and with the heavy gloves these two are cutting loose the old war with a snap that bids evil for some worthy opponent in the fight Wednesday night at the Auditorium.

Jack Ward tips the scales after McVea's height at 235 pounds, but carries the advantage of youth and speed in the ring. Ward is reputed to have licked such promising heavies as old Sam Langford and the army ace in Sgt. Ray Smith. Ward carries a terrible wallop with his right paw and promises to carry a lively fight to the veteran McVea Wednesday.

McVea ranks with the greatest colored fighters of all times and has a great record in times past and present. About the only dusky fighter that Sam hasn't been able to beat consistently is Sam Langford. These two ringsters have met for almost a score of fights and in each engagement the result has demanded another engagement.

The deans of the colored fighters, Mike and Lou, the hay-maker that opened the big cut over Langford's eye. Several years ago McVea and Langford traveled forty-nine rounds in Paris for one of the fiercest fights ever staged on either side of the pond. Ward is scheduled to follow McVea in the ring with several rounds of fast action and to display the pride of the local dusky contingent.

Benton Harbor, Mich., August 30. Because of a fear of growing state, Billy Miske, challenger for the world's heavyweight title, will today to drop all work with the gloves for a day at least and perhaps longer.

The challenger may be forced to suspend boxing for two or three days as a result of opening up an old wound over his left eye in training yesterday. Miske suffered a slight cut when a negro sparring partner butted him, but the injury, his trainers said, is not likely to seriously bother him unless it is further damaged.

Lampsey is rapidly rounding into condition. A veteran was so eager for work yesterday that he fought the last four rounds of his glove session in a heavy downpour of rain.

JACKSON BEATS 'GENE' DELMONT

Jersey City, N. J., August 30.—Willie Jackson, of New York, out-fought Gene Delmont, of Memphis, in a 12-round bout here tonight. Jackson, who weighed 184 pounds, two heavier than his opponent, and the better of every round except the seventh. In this round Delmont landed one of his many wild swings and cut Jackson over the left eye. Jackson administered a number of blows, but the southern fighter fought back throughout.

AMERICAN LEAGUE GREATLY PEEVED ABOUT SUFFRAGE

New York, August 30.—The American constitutional league made public here today its latest address to Governor Holcomb, of Connecticut, urging that he continue his "manly and patriotic course" in refusing to call a special session of the Connecticut legislature to take action on the proposed amendment.

"We respectfully urge that you decline to call such session," the letter said, "in all states pending in the court of appeals for the District of Columbia to determine the validity of the alleged amendment by proceedings in court under their election laws."

Declaring that the action of Secretary of State Coby in proclaiming the amendment "is in effect a ministerial only," it asserts that "the alleged ratification by Tennessee was not within the power of the legislature at the special session at which it was attempted."

The letter adds that "in all states which have not ratified we will contest the validity of the alleged amendment by proceedings in court under their election laws."

NEGRO PASTORS SCORE CRIMES OF NEGRO

Chattanooga, Tenn., August 30.—The United Pastors' association (negro) of Chattanooga, in session here today, condemned in no uncertain terms the murder of Abe Baron and attempted assault on a young white woman, to which two young negroes have confessed. The resolutions demand that justice be meted out, locally to the guilty perpetrators.

The resolutions adopted are as follows:

"In regard to the awful, dastardly crime said to have been committed a few days ago at Urchville by two young colored men, who are said to have confessed the crime, we wish to put ourselves on record as being understood not to condone such crimes or lawless acts by any people of this peaceful community."

"We also do not condone any degree of recklessness that might be done by any citizen that is calculated to disturb the peace and harmony of the good people of Chattanooga, or to cause the least possible friction between the races."

"In doing this we feel that we have gone our limit when we express the hope that such lawful steps must be taken that will bring the perpetrators of such crimes to justice, and we, furthermore, put ourselves on record as being ready to do all in our power as ministers to admonish all those with whom we have to do to be law-abiding citizens."

The leaders and better class among the colored people of this city deplore the fact that colored men should be in any way connected with so great a crime."

U. S. SOLDIERS GUARD WEST VIRGINIA MINES

Williamson, W. Va., August 30.—Soldiers of the regular army sent here at the request of Governor Cornwell from Camp Sherman, Ohio, to handle the situation growing out of the strike of coal miners, established their camp today one mile east of Williamson. As soon as the camp was prepared detachments of Minersmen were sent to four Mingo county points. Williamson, Matewan, Thacker and Bordenland. The three latter towns have been the scenes of disorders since the strike began.

Colonel Burkhardt, in command of the troops and Adjutant General T. B. Davis, personal representative of Governor Cornwell, were in Charleston today in conference with the state's chief executive and it was expected that the colonel would issue a statement of policy on his return to this city. State troopers who have been on duty in the region since the first disorders occurred, have left for other points in West Virginia. Kentucky guards, who have been patrolling the west bank of the river, were still on duty tonight, but it was reported they would be recalled as soon as federal soldiers had been assigned to strategic points in Pike county.

One disturbance occurred in the strike region today. Civil authorities reported that L. L. Tinsley, a mine foreman, was attacked by four men at Chattanooga, near here. Four striking miners, alleged by the authorities to have been the assailants, were arrested.

New Orleans, August 30.—George E. McCordell, of New Orleans, and manager of the McCordell Cotton company of this city, was drowned today when he jumped overboard
